

SubscribePast IssuesTranslate ▼View this email in your browser

Dear Music and Art Lovers,

- After the epic saga that was July, we're thrilled to revive a fresh chapter! With summer in the rearview mirror, it's time to crank up the tunes and prep the studio for an action-packed Fall semester.

Huge thanks to all of you for staying with us online as we keep forging strong alliances in the community.

With sunny vibes and gratitude,
Gigi and Alberto

Let's Hear It: Lágrimas Negras

- Tune in to one of the all-time favorites of early 20th-century Cuban music! This track, first published in 1929, embraces the classic danzón

Subscribe

Past Issues

Translate ▾

Listen
Now

Cover/background art: El Bobo, Eduardo Abela, ca. 1932.

Fine Instrument of the Month: Bill Glez Guitar #1707

With its Spanish Cypress back and sides and a Sitka Spruce soundboard, this handmade guitar strikes a perfect chord, exuding a traditional sound that can only be described as maderoso – a Spanish term that captures its rich, woody essence. It's not just the sound that'll leave you breathless; this beauty comes at an attractive price that lets professional musicians breathe easy too.

Inquire

Studio Corner:

- Fall classes begin August 16th.
- Masterclass for selected students is scheduled for October 19th.
- See you very soon!

Thanks so much to everyone who has supported our music on YouTube. If you haven't already done so, please subscribe to our channel for updates and new releases! ●

Subscribe to our channel

● Can't subscribe? Write us a review!

Review Us on Google

● Thank you for supporting independent music in Miami

Subscribe

Past Issues

Translate ▼

Our mailing address is:

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe

