

ALBERTO PUERTO MUSIC

JANUARY NEWSLETTER

Dear friends of the arts,

Welcome 2024! We hope you've found some opportunities to rest and refresh your spirits during the holiday season. Ready for fresh artistic perspectives this year? We've spent the holidays clearing space for wonderful new collaborations and educational offerings that will contribute to the artistic range of our Magic City as intentionally as ever.

Find us in the Miami Dade Cultural Resource Directory

As a collaborative arts organization with a strong commitment to our community, we are pleased to be listed in the Miami Dade Cultural Resource Directory for this year. Along with our fiscal sponsor, the National Performance Network, we are looking forward to continuing our work with arts organizations that share our mission to maintain and enhance the singular artistic diversity that characterizes Miami. You can check out the directory below.

Explore the directory

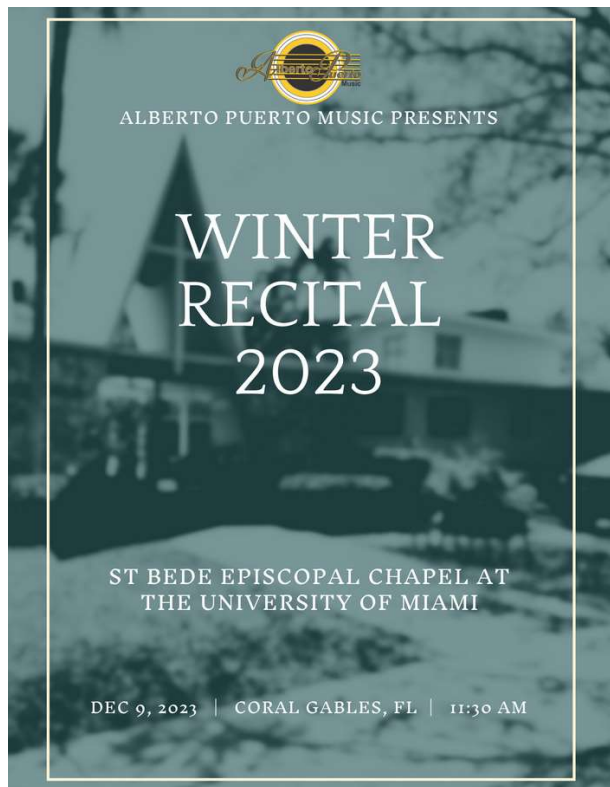

New Course Offerings for 2024

This year, we will be expanding our curriculum for classical guitar students to include bass guitar, acoustic guitar, and electric guitar as part of the overall guitar program.

Students will be introduced to the new components in dialogue with the instructor.

Thinking of dusting off that neglected guitar? We will also be expanding our recreational music making courses for adult learners and will keep you posted as the year progresses.

See our classes

🎵 Music School Notes 🎵

📄 Congratulations to everyone who played at the winter recital!

Classes begin the week of Jan. 8th. Please reach out to the instructor if you have any questions.

🏆 The Florida State Music Teachers' Association is holding Student Day on April 13th. Registration closes on March 18th. Please let us know if you would like to prepare your student for this special opportunity.

Visit AP Guitar School

Our commitment to fostering creativity, innovation, and community remains unwavering. Together, let's make 2024 a year of inspiration, growth, and shared accomplishments.

Thank you for being a cherished part of our community. Stay tuned for the intriguing collaborations, educational initiatives, and projects that are set to unfold. Here's to a magical and art-filled year ahead!

Follow Us

Review Us on Google

Visit our studio 