Dear Music and Art Lovers,

As the final notes of 2024 fade into the ether, we at Alberto Puerto Music and GG Art Space stand in awe of the artistry we've created together. This year, you, our vibrant community of collaborators, students, artists, and supporters, helped transform visions into reality as we conjured extraordinary moments.

A Peek Back: 2024 Highlights

- Captivating performances at events like GuitarFest NWSA and Miami Art Week, where music and artistry transcended boundaries.
- Miami Art Week highlights included the stunning Pan-American Dimension performance on December 7, featuring Kuyayky and other

- Educational achievements, from masterclasses with Profs Padron and Kazama to launching new courses for adult learners, we expanded our mission of accessible excellence in music education.
- Inspiring artistic expressions through exhibitions like Embodying Color by Hollye Davidson and A Space to Have A Space by Juliana Bukowitz and Roberto Montes de Oca, reminding us of the connection between inner and outer expanses.
- Collaborations and milestones that strengthened our foundation, including grants, partnerships, and new musical releases that celebrated the pulse and spirit of our community today.

Looking Ahead: What's Next

None of this would have been possible without you!

Your belief in our vision and your unwavering support inspire us to dream bigger, create boldly, and deepen the connections that matter most.

Looking ahead to 2025

The new year promises more opportunities to connect, create, and celebrate. From the anticipated Classical Guitar Night at Frost School of Music Feb 15th to continued activations at participating spaces across the Magic City, we're ready to make 2025 a year to remember, with you by our side.
