Dear Music and Art Lovers,

As the year winds down and the season of celebration begins, we find ourselves reflecting on one of our most extraordinary years yet. Thanks to your support, we've reached new heights, and we're thrilled to conclude 2024 with spectral collaboration for Miami Art Week that highlights the vibrant soul of Latin American music, in partnership with our dear friends at AnEyeDiary.

Here's to a peaceful and inspired New Year as we prepare to expand our horizons and bring you even more captivating artistry in 2025.

HEAR IT FROM OUR STUDENTS

Ever wondered what it feels like to be part of the artistry we create? Step into the shoes of one of our talented students, Light Pierre, in her latest blog post. Through her eyes, you'll discover the magic of our musical approach, the joy of collaboration, and the transformative power of art. Our Winter recital will be held live at the Historic Dorn Building on December 8th.
